

Description

- Plug-in EEPROM memory module (5 kByte)
- External memory module for transferring and/or downloading the program from or to the internal EEPROM system memory. Internal program is deactivated for as long as the external memory module is plugged in (dual programming).